

STRESS LESS

BIO-SPRAY

Energy Nutrients™ delivered with loss-less transmission to the human body.

STRESS LESS is formulated to provide the specific resonant plant energies to help restore proper energy flow to your rest, repair, and regenerative functions, thus getting you into a state of well-being.

When we experience stress, our body responds by activating its fight or flight functions. This is its natural way of responding to threats. However, when we are exposed to unrelenting stress, our body is unable to recharge the energy required to support its vital rest, repair and regenerative functions. This can lead to a variety of symptoms and ultimately degenerative dysfunction. STRESS LESS provides the Energy Nutrients™ to balance the brain hemispheres, allowing the mind to effectively process any level of stress in a healthy way.

STRESS LESS is designed to take the edge off your day by supplying resonant energy to the functions of your body that are most compromised by stress.*

ENERGY NUTRIENTS™

Every plant obtains its energy from the sun, which is converted into a set of vibrational frequencies that support the bio-electric signaling impulses that flow between your brain and specific glands, organs and tissues. This phenomenon in which one vibrating system (e.g., a plant) drives another system (e.g., the body) to oscillate at greater amplitude is called resonance. Resonance captured in water through the Bio-Transfer Technology™ is known as Energy Nutrients™. STRESS LESS provides Energy Nutrients™ that support the human body's ability to adapt to stress.*

AURALANA'S BIO-SPRAYS

Auralana's BIO-SPRAYS utilize Bio-Transfer Technology™ to extract Energy Nutrients™ that are stored in plants (through photosynthesis) into water, the perfect storage medium for the myriad frequencies that plants utilize to store energy. The different frequencies in our BIO-SPRAYS activate varied and specific physiological pathways and functions that are critical to human health. Until now, humans have relied on plants and animals to transfer these Energy Nutrients™ to the human body. Auralana's BIO-SPRAYS represent a leap in the technology of human health and nutrition, bypassing inefficient mechanisms of energy transfer (i.e. supplements and diet) and supplying the body with a direct source of Energy Nutrients™ with loss-less transmission. This is a breakthrough for human nutrition technology and its availability marks a new and better path for practitioners to support their patients/clients health, physiology, and overall well-being.
